VOL. IV. NO. 19.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 22, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The racing bill before the two bodies of the Illinois Legislature has a chance to pass. It provides for 157 days racing and is a measure that adds to the revenue of the state. The taxation provisions of the bill are well built and its general terms sensible and correct. Should local troubles not bring about political division, the bill will pass. Should it become a law, Washington Park will open its gates in 1898 for, probably, its old term of twenty-five days. This will leave 132 days for the other Chicago courses, Hawthorne and Harlem would get ninety days under the law, leaving forty-two days for the three Indiana tracks at Lakeside, Sheffield and Forsyth. The Indiana tracks, by mere existence and past use have become fixed items in the Chicago racing field. Monopoly in racing is not more healthy than in other lines.

An agreement between all track owners seems probable under the terms of the measure—should it pass—on some such basis as this:

Washington Park	25 days.
Hawthorne	45 days.
Harlem	45 days.
Lakeside	15 days.
Sheffield	15 days.
Forsyth	12 days.

Total157 days.

As a matter of revenue Illinois would probably get from $30,000 to $40,000 a year through the measure from the three Chicago race tracks alone and some $150,000 from all the race tracks within its limits. The passage of the bill would give Chicago from five to eight millions of dollars worth of business which has gone to Cincinnati, St. Louis and the East for the past three years and benefit the breeders of the state by nearly as large a sum. In addition it would aid the breeders and owners of American thoroughbreds by four or five times that amount. The business men of Chicago might well send to the members of the Illinois legislature their idea of what they have lost by the closing of Washington Park and the two other high class race courses in Cook county. Such testimony would make the passage of Senator Fitzpatrick's measure a surety.

Frank Shaw is said to have a "good thing" within his present control—a bicycle brake that is likely to yield him another fortune. He is in New York and bound for England to protect the device at that corner. I hope Shaw's device will make him rich again. He has been rich a score of times, only to drift to poverty through the avenues of chancetaking. Shaw is as straight up and down a fellow as I ever ran against upon the race track. He was abused and accused of trickery when at his best in a financial way. I knew him well and kept track of his operations in 1891, 1892 and 1893, when he was most active about the turf. All the big actors about racing speculation are marked and used by furtive turfmen. Shaw was liberal and got all the "information" that way on tap. He relied upon "information" and won and lost fortunes in betting about it. Several times he was nearly half a million "strong." Shaw's mere carelessness—failure to check "information" with public form—settled him.

There never was a more daring player than Shaw. He would bet $20,000 or so on a mere notion and when the Covington rooms and the Garfield Park foreign book were "good"—there was hardly a limit to the amount they would take—he frequently bet $50,000 a day. His bets by wire almost made the post price. Certainly they cut a deep figure about it. Shaw was abused by the papers and held up as a manipulator of turf tools. As a matter of fact, he was what the "keeners" of the turf call "a sucker." He was into everything: a nervous, busy, American who had to put the steam within him into every open avenue. He bought the betting privilege and fought the so-called Western Bookmakers' Association at Washington Park during the World's Fair season. It cost him nearly $100,000, because the bookmakers opposed his $150 a day scheme. Shaw filled up his own ring and lost. He owes a lot of money about this scheme today. If he ever gets the price, Shaw will pay all his debts. I hope he will get it.

The eastern campaign of Piccolo—the racing qualities of which Shaw leased in 1892—cost him another fortune. The horse was fast, but a coward and a failure. F. H. BRUNELL.

Mr. J. E. Seagram headed the list of Canadian winning owners last year with total stable earnings of $16,915, of which Havoc contributed $5,510 and Joe Miller $3,000. Others who stood well in the winning list were Mr. Orpen, $8,305; Adam Beck, $8,650; N. Dymont, $6,335; William Hendrie, $5,390; Smith & Co, $3,540; Rothert & Gorman, $3,020, and J. P. Dawes, $1,225. With two such good 3-year-olds in his string as Harvey and Laverock, Mr. Hendrie should do better this year.

T. D. Carter has such a lengthy string of 2-year-olds for the campaign of '98 that he will be in hard luck indeed if he does not develop one or more top-sawyers. Here are the names of the young hopefuls:

Hydren, b. c, by Bradford—Bay Gal.
Feliz, b. f, by Bradford—Voltrina.
Turn Coat, b. f, by Bradford—Stella V.
Babe Robertson, b. f, by Bradford—Jennie Ten Broeck.
Goldfish, ch. f, by Wawecus—Cretonia.
Hump, b. c, by Wawecus—Surprise.
Advantage, b. c, by Wawecus—Lizzie G.
Bonesetter, b. f, by Wawecus—Bonheur.
Ice Cream, b. f, by Inspector B—Carrie H.
Babe Carter, b. f, by Kingston—Jennie Porter.
Quartered Oak, b. c, by Kingston—Pearl Ash.
Edgebrook, b. c, by Ormond d'Or—Itinerant.
The Crawfish, ch. f, by Order—The Shrimp.
Petosky, ch. c, by Order—Starling.
Tzigan, ch. f, by Faustus—Nina W.
Black Lad, br. c, by Pontico—Black Gal.
Dr. Graves, b. c, by Pontico—Verosa.
Gussme, b. f, by Pontico—Mary H.
Protect, b. f, by Pontico—Mary W.

R. W. Walden & Sons have claimed names for the following round dozen 2-year-olds:

Chemisette, br. f, by Stonehenge—Chemise.
Filigrane, b. c, by Galore—Fillette.
Ben Nut, br. c, by Iroquois—Ben-Ma-Chree.
Cherry Pit, b. c, by Eolus—Cerise.
Gold Fox, ch. cy Silver Fox—Carita.
Rustle, ch. c, by Eolus—Tillie Russell.
Tyron, br. c, by Tyrant—Queen Bess.
Miss Marks, b. f, by Galore—Phoebe Marks.
Merriness, b. f, by Tom Ochiltree—Merry One.
Confuse, ch. f, by Macaroon—Uproar.
Effort, blk. c, by Iroquois—Nellie Grand.
Martha Fox, blk. f, by Silver Fox—Martha Washington.

There is one colt in this lot, Cherry Pit, that will be carefully considered by turf speculators when he comes to the post, for he is a full brother to one of the best horses that ever stood on iron, the truly great racer Morello.

Col. W. S. Barnes, proprietor of the noted Melbourne Stud Farm, denies that he intends to again embark actively in racing, and in a letter to DAILY RACING FORM says: "I wish you would deny the report that I have regularly returned to the turf. I will race a stable but not as a business. My business is breeding with annual sales. I have sixty-five as fine broodmares as any one owns, headed by Jim Gore and Prince of Monaco and the finest equipped place around Lexington."

"I kept of my own breeding and bought seven finely bred fillies for broodmares and with two colts that were out of condition at the time of my sale, two that purchasers failed to pay for and three 3-year-olds I already had—this constitutes my stable and after development, they will all be for sale."

From this it is apparent Col. Barnes has no intention of more than a brief return to the place he once so worthily occupied as one of the class of turfmen who give character and standing to the turf. In his letter he announces his departure for Florida where he will remain for some time recuperating slightly impaired health.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

John B. Brannon, who was ruled off in 1891 by the officials of the Latonia Jockey Club for supposed complicity in the notorious Polk Budget case was reinstated by that same club Thursday. Brannon was unjustly ruled off and his vindication has been unjustly delayed. There was never the slightest evidence connecting him with the ringing of Polk Budget except the circumstance that he, being then here in Chicago, had received a "tip" by telegram from his brother telling him to put a bet on the horse, a suggestion that he thought so slightly of that he bet a very trivial sum and showed the telegram broadcast among his acquaintances so that they might avail themselves of its "information" if they so wished.

The 2-year-old stake events at New Orleans that closed January 15, received the following entries: The Premier Stakes, $1000 guaranteed, 30; the Bayonet Stakes, 1-2 mile, $1000 guaranteed, 31; the Lexington Selling Stake, 1-2 mile, $1000 guaranteed, 30; and the Lightning Stakes, 5-8 mile, $1000 guaranteed, 48. All of the supposed cracks are in.

A 2-year-old that may do to keep on the right side is W. W. Worthington's filly La Gabrielle, by Inspector B—Baby Blake. She is credited with extremely fast work over the Newport track and is in most of the Latonia and Oakley stakes.

James R. Keene has leased Mathew Dawson's training establishment at Exning as the home of his horses in England. Mr. Keene says that Voter and St. Cloud are doing well in their winter exercise at Newmarket.

John Givens is to retire as trainer for J. Naglee Burk at the conclusion of the present Oakland meeting.

Hugh Jones has presented Whirlwind to Dan Honig, who will breed the daughter of El Rio Rey to Magnet.

Mrs. Langtry paid $25,000 for Aurum, the crack three-year-old of Australia.

ST. LOUIS STAKE ENTRIES.

Though the St. Louis stake entries have not as yet been published, it is known to exceed those of last year. Barney Schreiber and Tom Ryan have sent forty nominations from Frisco, Count of Flanders being among Ryan's entries. Dr. Rowell has entered Satsuma in a number of events and Louis Ezell Buena Ventura in most of the 2-year-old events.

HAMBURG IS SOUND.

A fake interview telegraphed from New York recently, credited Marcus Daly with conceding that Hamburg is unsound. The interview was a lie pure and simple for space filling purposes, but it has sufficed to elicit the following statement from John Madden:

"Hamburg was sounder at the close of the season than he was just before the Great Trial was run—so sound was he that I offered to bet $5,000 and agreed to give Malvolio 20 pounds in three-quarters over Latonia, one of the hardest tracks in the west. This I certainly would not have offered had I thought him sore. He won each of his last five stakes in a gallop. His feet and legs are absolutely clean and sound, with the exception of a small windpuff in the center of the knee, nowhere near the joint. Hamburg was foaled with this puff, and on an inspection of the Max photograph of Lady Reel the same puff may be seen over her knee. Hamburg's perfect action will carry him through the season, even if he should develop bad legs. I began the training of Hamburg before he was one year old—took him up on December 15, 1895. Any person not acquainted with Hamburg would be readily deceived. He has, at a slow gait, a careless way of going, which many would call soreness. My only hope is that Mr. Daly will not send Hamburg west to fill his engagements, as my horse Plaudit is in the same stakes, and if Hamburg starts in these events I shall certainly scratch Plaudit."

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Blacking Brush was well handled. He was on the path all the way. Bridgeton had to be hard ridden to get up. Wells Street went to pieces in the stretch. He was in the heavy going.
Scratched—Ransom, 104.

Winner—Br. f, 4, by Hayden Edwards—Fannie S.
Off at first break. Start good. Won easily; second same. Carlotta C was much the best. She romped all the way. Etarre tired in stretch, while Miss Rowett finished strong. She saved quite a bit of ground swinging for home. Lauretta D made up some ground too, but tired at the end.

Scratched—Jolly Son, 101; Dad's Daughter, 102.

Winner—B. h, 5, by Hindoo—Kissingen.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second same. The going was not heavy enough for Bob Clampett. Royal Choice forgot to sulk. Mellie tired in the run home. Rhett Goode was lame going to the post. McMillan was outclassed.
Scratched—Jamboree, 107.

Start good. Won very easily; second and third driving. Zamar was lucky. Caliente was most unlucky. He was cut off sharply at start and on first turn and closed like a lion. He favors a fast track. Official ran a good race. He needs stronger handling than he got and closed strong. Watch Digs as a sprinter. That's all he is nowadays. He was eased at the finish. R Q Ban, rather outclassed, is ready and ran a good race. Al Koran is only formidable in mud. Towanda's race can be thrown out. He was poorly ridden, away slowly and met with early interference that settled his chances.

Winner—Ch. g, 4, by Cassatt—Brigand Girl.
Start good. Won ridden out. Stoutter was lucky, well ridden and is in excellent shape. Kamin was best. He is good and came strong at the end. Was interfered with on first and stretch turns. Lost Girl had bad luck too. She was hampered at the start and on the stretch turn. So was Polish. Aquinas has been out of sorts and is not himself. Throw the race out. Major Cook, only a sprinter, stopped when the pinch came. Singer and Howard were outclassed. Walter J favors the mud.

Scratched—Benamela, 104; Harry Gwynn, 104; Fred Gardner, 107; Roadwarmer, 101.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Maxim—Tyranny.
Start good. Won cleverly. Shasta Water outclassed her field. She closed strong. Serena ran an excellent race. She evidently favors a route and is good. Needs stronger handling. Off poorly, she closed ground throughout. Plate ran her race. She was outclassed. Quick has staled, but need not be dropped from the tab. Throw out Lena's race. She is good and was fresh and strong at the end. Newgatherer was in all pockets. Watch him. Lorena was outclassed.

Winner—Br. h, 6, by Hanover—Triana.
Start good. Won in a gallop. Buck Massie was far the best. The going suited him and he is in good condition. Ostler Joe ran his race. He is cherry ripe also, but he was overweighted and not fully keyed up for such a race. He favors mud too. The Roman—like all the Brutus family—goes best on a fast course. He is ready. Tom Cromwell is not acclimated. He favors a fast course also.

Winner—B. g, 5, by St Carlo—Royal Bess.
Start straggling. Won ridden out. Our Climate was away flying and well played. No chances were taken with him. Rufalba was perhaps the best, but badly ridden. So was Cromwell, who is ready and closed ground steadily from a slow beginning. Watch Coupon. He sulked today. Rudolph ran short. He is not much when he doesn't.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Eagle Plume—Froila.
Start good. Won easily. May W was best, had a clear course and was well ridden. Tea Rose III was far from lucky, poorly ridden and cut off on the first turn. I Don't Know ran his race. He was outclassed. Blarneystone is but a sprinter with a leaning for the mud. The Spinner and Hermoso were outclassed.
